Main screen

In the main screen you can login to existing account (link on the top right), or refer to the, or refer to the about and help sections of the site.

Login screen:

In the login screen you can log in to your existing account (login is both for children and for parents), and you can create a new account by clicking on the “register” link.

Parent - Create Account screen:

In this screen you can create an account by entering a username, current email, and password.

View					7	child2	subj from c2 to c1 and c4	4/28/2011 1:10:37 AM	3	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

When a parent logs in he is directed to this page. Here he sees the new messages that were sent to his child. Each message can be read by clicking on “view”.

In addition, each message can be managed in four different ways:

- clicking this will delete message and deny child from getting it

- clicking this will approve the message and allow child to view it

- clicking on this will deny this message and any future messages from this user

- clicking on this will approve this message and any future messages from this user

Parent – contacts:

ID	Status	UserName	Email	Remarks	Archived
Edit 5	Pending	child2	c2@gmail.com	child2 contact of child4	<input type="checkbox"/>
Edit 6	Denied	child1	rachel8978@gmail.com	child1 contact of child4	<input type="checkbox"/>

In this screen you can edit any users that were defined as always approved or always denied. By clicking the “edit” option, you can set the user to be approved, denied, or pending (which is the default for all senders in the first place).

Child – Inbox:

View	Archive	MsgID	From	Subject	DateCreate	MsgStatusID	IsRead
View		3	child1	subj from c1 to c2 and c4	4/27/2011 11:58:31 PM	2	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
View		4	child2	subj from c2 to c4	4/28/2011 12:12:49 AM	2	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

When a child logs in he gets to his inbox. Here he can see the messages that were approved for him, read them, and archive them.

Child – Send Mail:

The screenshot shows a web application interface for sending an email. The page title is "My First Email" and the user is logged in as "child4". The navigation menu includes "Home", "About", "Help", "Child Inbox", and "Send Mail". The main content area is titled "Send Mail" and contains a "Send To:" sidebar with two recipients: "child2" (selected) and "child4". The "Subject:" field contains "bla bla bla" and the "Message:" field contains "hello world!". A "Send" button is located at the bottom right of the form.
